108. To Consider any other issues relating to Huntington Parish Councils' Open Spaces

- The area on Yearsley Green has been cleared, LF has ordered the seeds

109. Church Yard

LF to contact Peter Ploughs who digs the graves in both cemeteries to see if he could clear away the debris from the compost bins and behind the tool store.

LF

110. Play Areas

- i) To confirm Role Profile and the date for Orchard Park Caretaker Interviews

It was agreed subject to the receipt of any applications to hold interviews on 29th April, CH agreed that; if another candid for interviewer couldn't be found he would sit on the interview panel

111. To Consider Any Further Issues within the remit of the Amenities Committee

- i) Planters outside the Post Office

CH wished it to be minuted that; upon reflection he believed that the repair to the planters should not go ahead as they were private property and to repair with public monies would be wrong, (this issue was raised at the original discussion by LF). It was agreed to Recommend that; the repairs do not take place.

- ii) WMC planters' water

It was Recommended that; as previously agreed a donation be made for the supply of water, CH confirmed that the HWMC water bill was £1,800.00 and that the outside tap needs replacing.

112. To Confirm Date, Time and Venue for Next Amenities Committee Meeting
